chauffeur, who was the only other occupant of the car, was thrown clear of the car and uninjured beyond scratches, braises and sprains.

Mr. Ramsey had been on a business trip to Organ, about 17 miles from Las Cruces. When his business was completed it was beginning to grow dark, so he ordered the chauffeur nor Mr. Ramsey were familiar with the road. About 10 miles out of Las Cruces, the automobile struck sand at a tuen in the road and skidded, turning on its side over an embankment. Mr. Ramsey was 55 years old. He is survived by his widow, his parents, Mr. Ramsey was cought under the tool box on the running board, which broke his neck and crushed in his skull behind the right ear.

Sheriff F. Lucero, of Las Cruces, was notified by the chauffeur of the accident which to the wreck. In the inquest over the BERT RAMSEY, president of Bert Ramsey & company, wholesale liquor dealers, of El Paso, had his neck broken and his skull crushed when his Chalmers "Six" car turned over in the sand about ten miles north-cast of Las Cruces Saturday evening at about 6:30 oclock. His death was instantaneous. Harry Ware, the negro chamseur, who was the only other occupant of the car, was thrown clear of the car and uninjured beyond scratches.

Body, sherist Laicero's verdict was that death was due to an unavoidable automobile accident. The body of Mr. Ramsey was brought back to Las Cruces and was shipped to El Paso Sunday night, J. D. Walker, Paul Rhule, and Mr. and Mrs. Frei Katzenstein accompanying the body here.

Mr. Ramsey owned a branch wholesale liquor house in Las Cruces, which transaction took Mr. Ramsey to Las Cruces from El Paso Friday, the day before the accident.

Mr. Ramsey had lived in Las Cruces for some time before his removal to Ell Paso and was well known there. About 16 days before the accident which cost him his life, he had broken his arm while cranking his car.

beadquarters in Juarez. Herrera's di-vision of 2000 men left Juarez for Chi-huahna a week ago last Saturday, a day before the federals under Gen. Mercado evacanted the state capital.

The movements of this advance guard were not known until they reached Villa Ahumada, 35 miles south of Juarez. Then trace of them was lost. of Justez. Then trace of them was lost. It was given out in Juares by Gen. Villa before he left last Wednesday that the vanguard was proceeding "slowis southward" and would wait for him to come up before entering Chihuahur. Since that time not a word as to the location or movements of Herrera's force has reached Juarez.

Thinks Rebels Followed Mercado. Says Gen. Benavides: "I have heard nothing of the movements of the advance guard and I think it very possible that Herrera is marching after the snemy who fied foward Ginaga. Gen. Willa has not informed me of the movements of this division, but it is reasonable to suppose that Herrera is on the trail of the federals. I would not be at all surprised to hear that he has already met the enemy in the vicinity already met the enemy in the vicinity of Falomir."

A wild rumor that the volunteers un-der Salazar and Orozco had met and defeated the force under Herrera, taking 800 prisoners, was current on the streets of Juarez Monday morning. "Salazar is coming to take Juarez after having defeated Herrera," was the substance of it. Gen. Benavides, comnander of the Juarez garrison, laughed Americans arriving in El Paso by automobile from Parral say that none of the federal volunteer forces went west from Chihuahua after ils evacuation, as was first reported. Salazar, Oroxco, Careveo and Rojas, with 2000 men, followed the federal rerulars under Merca to out of Chihuahua and kept about a day's march behind the advance guard. When the fleeing Hueraistas Fatomir, the terminal of the Orient rallway, less than 100 miles from Ojinaga, the volunteer division detrained and according to the American attrivals, made preparations that indicated that they would attempt to remain there. As a result, Mercado and his regular army have gone to Olinaga alone.

The Americans deny that the 200 federals left to police the city, deserted Chibushus, but say that they reed Chibunhua, but say that they remained in the city and assisted in maintaining order. Their safety had been assured by the foreign consuls and they remained on the job, the Americans say. A few looters were executed soon after the evacuation, they say, and nothing was done to break any of the laws since.

Mercado burned 11 troop trains at Amigos, on the Orient line 55 miles east of Chibushua when he started on his trek across the Camargo desert They say that Mercado took all of the railroad equipment to be obtained in Chibushua when the federals evacuted, and took provisions enough for a month on these 11 trains. There were 5000 federals, the Americans say, and the number of the refragees was not known, but included Gen. Luis Terrazas, Col. Alberto Terrazas and his volunteer regiment, and a number of the other wealthy citizens of Chibushua, many with their families, Orozzo, Caraveo, Rojas and Salazar were with Mercado, Rojas and Salazar were with Mercado purpose to the description of takings the field but to have a conference with Caranza and star his side of the recent difficulty with Villa in Juarez. Train service between Juarez and Chihuahua will probably be resumed about Thursday, according to military authorities. No trains, military or otherwise, are due to leave the border town before Tuesday. Detachments of rebels have been leit all along the railway between Juarez and Chihuahua to guard against its being cut.

One hundred men have been sent from Juarez to capture the small outlaw band under Maximo Castillo, reported in the country near Palomas, opposite Columbus, N. M. Regular guards are stationed at all times at Raache Plores, 12 miles west of Juarez Equence, 12 miles west of Juarez Equence, 12 miles west of Juarez Equence, 12 miles cast, and the chances of a gurprise attack are small. Food and Ammunition Destroyed.

When the trains reached Amigos all of the ammunition, machine guns and other equipment which could not be carried by the federals and refugees were destroyed when the trains were burned, even the food supplies having been destroyed the Americans say. Thirty of the refugee party, it is said, returned from Aldama to Chihuahua, having abandoned the refugee party at that statlob because of the hard-ships. They say that Mercado had glenty of money when he left Chihuahua, having abandoned the refugee party at that statlob because of the hard-ships. They say that Mercado had glenty of money when he left Chihuahua, and that he expected to reach the border at Olinaga and intended to cross to the United States and surrender.

News of the capture by rebels of two important towns in Nuevo Leon was received in Juarez by Gen. Benavides Sunday night from Gen. Carranza at Hermosilio. The telegram was dated from Nogales, Sonora. It follows: "Please communicate to Gen Villa the following: "Gen. Gonzales has communicated to me that a military train belonging to the federal column under Gen. Rubio Navarrette was captured by our forces at Garza Valdez, Nuevo Leon. Arms. horses and provisions were included in the capture. The important towns of Linares and Moutemorelos have also fallen into our hands. The enemy abandoned their arms and equipment when they fled from these places. Our forces are pursuing them in the direction of Monterey."

Linares and Montemorelos are within three hours' ride by railway from Monterey, capital of Nuevo Leon, and the most important point still held by federals in northern Mexico. on Thursday and they told us that the federals were at Falomir and that 11 deserters from the federals had been taken prisons by the rebels, including one artillery officer. They reported that the federals were burning ammunition at Falomir, as they had no way of conveying it and that they had no wagons in which to convey food. They were scouting for wagons and ways for hauling water. There were said to be a number of automobiles in the party but these cars were not sent ahead, for fear of the rebels, and they remained with the main column, the rebels told us. They said that the party included the Terrazas, Falmoir, Creek, Cullty and other well known families in Chihuahua, who had left for fear the rebels would imprison them.

"There were few rebels in Ojinaga, port at Presidio that the advance scouts had been killed. We did not come by way of Falomir and know nothing of the location of the refugee caravan."

V. J. McQuatters, president of the Alearado Mining and Milling company, made a trip to Parral a month ago and arranged for bringing the bullion to the border. He arrived at Marfa Saturday at noon and will remain there to see that the bullion is shipped to New York by express and will then come to El Paso. W. J. creeman, assistant treasurer and auditor of the company, went to Olinaga Wednesday night and arranged for couriers to meet the wagon train on the desert. While at Olinaga he was trown from a wagon and had his left band badly bruised. He returned with Mr. Baskin Sunday evening.
